

SCWOA—Situations -- week 4; rule 7 from the Rule Book & Case Manual

Rule Book – Rule 7

- 1) True or False? A Slam is bringing the wrestler to the mat with unnecessary force?
  - 2) True or False? It's OK to grab the thumb, 1,2 or 3 fingers?
  - 3) What is the criteria for a legal headlock?
  - 4) Is it legal to figure 4 or scissors the body?
  - 5) Are hands in the face or hands in the eyes an illegal maneuver?
  - 6) How do you tell the difference between a forearm on the throat or pressure on the throat?
  - 7) What is the call when the wrestler squirms out of legal headlock, causing it to be illegal?
  - 8) Do the rules state the official should verbally caution potentially dangerous holds?
  - 9) Read rule 7, Section 2, Article 2a-h. Which potentially dangerous hold is most dangerous ?
  - 10) Name all possible technical violations?
  - 11) What is the difference between coach misconduct and coach unsportsmanlike conduct?
  - 12) True or False? If you are “thinking” a wrestler is stalling, you should call it right away?
  - 13) Give 4 common examples of stalling in the neutral position
  - 14) When broken down, Is it stalling if the heel is held to the butt for 4 seconds?
  - 15) In the standing position, how is the call made when the offensive guy doesn’t “attempt” to bring the opponent back down on the mat?
- Case Manual – Rule 7
- 16) Read page 44, 7.1.5 D, then check out the Rule Book page 66, picture 26. Is this ever legal?
  - 17) Read page 46, 7.2.3 Situation - Should the referee ever stop the match here?
  - 18) Read page 46, 7.3.1 Situation A – Does this ruling also apply to fleeing the mat?
  - 19) Read page 52, 7.6.2 Situation B – What happens if Wrestler A locks his hands again?

